

BEGANOVIC (S – TONY KART-VORTEX OK), RENAUDIN (F – SODI-TM KZ2), TEN BRINKE (NL – FA KART-VORTEX OKJ) AND BOHRA (SGP - PAROLIN-TM 60Mini) FLYING IN WSK SUPER MASTER SERIES. EXCITING QUALIFYING HEATS IN THE EVENING. CHALLENGES IN LIVE STREAMING FROM LONATO ON SUNDAY 24TH ON WSK.IT.

LONATO (BRESCIA, ITALY), FEBRUARY 22ND, 2019

340 DRIVERS CHARGING WSK SUPER MASTER SERIES IN LONATO. The second appointment of WSK Super Master series in Lonato (BS) scored record numbers. Stakes are getting high in categories OK, OK Junior and 60 Mini in the International Karting series by WSK Promotion. In this appointment, these categories will be joined by KZ2 that will contest its season-opening race. The number of verified drivers present at the South Garda Karting racetrack in Lonato is close to 340: they are all hunting for a better position in the classification and the increasing scoring scheme will definitely offer more chances for classification changes.

44 FLAGS WAVING IN THE LIVE STREAMING ON SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 24TH. Waiting to be raised high on the podium next Sunday afternoon, all the 44 flags representing all the 5 Continents saw their corresponding drivers taking on the challenge today in qualifying practice and in the first heats that started in the evening. A total of 31 heats are still to be run tomorrow and on Sunday morning. Prefinals and Finals to be held on Sunday, February 24th will be available through the live streaming feed from wsk.it and WSK Promotion's Facebook page starting from local 11.30.

DINO BEGANOVIC QUICKEST IN OK.

The Swede Dino Beganovic (Tony Kart-Vortex-Bridgestone) has been the quickest in OK with the fastest time 47"050s. He led the Italian Gabriele Mini (Parolin-TM). Both drivers are ready to bounce back in the classification, that is currently led by Lorenzo Trivisanutto (KR-lame), who posted the sixth quickest time today. Beganovic and Mini confirmed their speed in the evening, winning one heat each. The Scot Dexter Patterson (KR-lame) and the Brit Joseph Turney (Tony Kart-Vortex) secured one win each.

ADRIEN RENAUDIN LAUNCHES THE CHALLENGE IN KZ2. The first to shine in KZ2 is the French Adrien Renaudin (Sodikart-TM-Bridgestone), who went quickest in 46"646s leading the Italian Giuseppe Palomba (Croc-TM). The two kept the same positions in the first heat and Renaudin secured, therefore, the lead. The second heat went to another Sodikart driver: the Dutch Bas Lammers who led the Italian Matteo Viganò (Tony Kart-Vortex).

INTENSE QUALIFYING PRACTICE AND HEATS AT SOUTH GARDA KARTING IN LONATO DURING THE SECOND ROUND OF WSK SUPER MASTER SERIES.

THOMAS TEN BRINKE FASTEST IN OK JUNIOR.

In OKJ the Dutch driver Thomas Ten Brinke (FA Kart-Vortex-Bridgestone) topped the charts in 48"471s leading Andrea Kimi Antonelli (KR-lame). Both drivers are the main rivals of classification leader from Brazil Rafael Camara (BirelArt-TM), who was only 19th today. The Russian Nikita Bedrin (Tony Kart-Vortex) won two of the heats run today, while the Spanish Josep Marti (Tony Kart-Vortex), the Brit Jamie Day (Exprit-Vortex), the Pole Marcel Kuc (Parolin-TM) and the French Marcus Amand (KR-lame) secured one win each.

AKSHAY ARJUN BOHRA CHARGING 60 MINI.

He is only 18th in the 60 Mini classification, but the very young driver from Singapore Akshay Arjun Bohra went quickest in qualifying practice posting a best lap of 53"754s and led the Belgian Ean Eyckmans. Rashid Al Dhaheri (all on Parolin-TM-Vega) was third in qualifying practice before winning one of the heats. The second heat was won by Eyckmans, while Andrea Filaferro (Tony Kart-TM) had the upper hand in the third one.

press@wskarting.it